

Blockchain in Microfinance

Promoting financial inclusion & lowering costs in microfinance

September 30, 2019

Caroline Pflueger

BanQu

Do you see blockchain here?™

Everyone who participates in the agreement or transaction gets an equal and secured copy of the transaction.

Consensus.

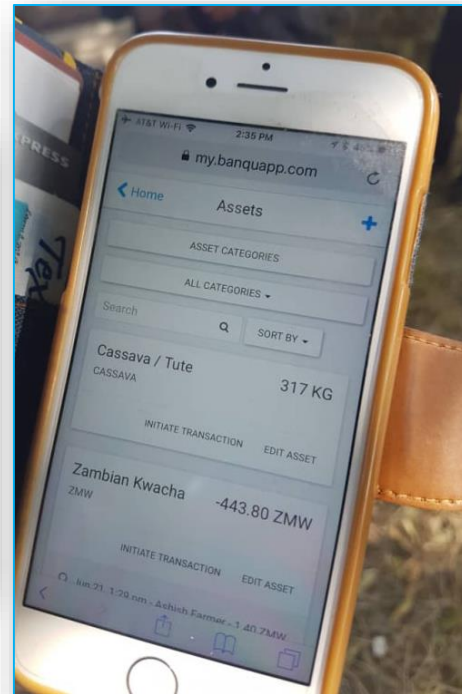

Distributed.

Immutable.

Permissions.

Dignity Through Identity®

Equity. Transparency. Empowerment. Traceability. Inclusion.

All the way to the last mile.

GUAYAQUIL, ECUADOR | 30.9. –
3.10.2019

COORDINATED
BY

Blockchain for Microfinance

Water & Sanitation Microloans in Peru

1. Putting data in the hands of the borrower
2. Capturing additional data (proof of use of loan)
3. Decreasing operational costs for microfinance

Questions

Caroline.Pflueger@BanQu.co

www.BanQu.co